

Intensive course in Dhow Countries
Music Academy, Stone Town, Zanzibar
Picture: Raisa Eklouoma

African Afternoon - Global Responsibility

Welcome to listen and share experiences of Finnish-African cooperation in the field of higher education.

Time May 8th 2013 at 12.00-14.30pm

Place Frami F, Auditorium F110

(Address: Kampusranta 11, Seinäjoki)

PROGRAMME

12.00 Opening of the seminar

Mr. Jouni Niskanen, Vice President, Seinäjoki University of Applied Sciences

12.05 Students' performance

Students of Umodzi Project from Kenya, Tanzania and Zambia

12.15 Keynote: "Participatory methods in community work"

Mr. John Siakavuba, Coordinator, Literature Section in the Department of Literature and Languages, University of Zambia

12.30 Keynote: "North-South co-operation and the role of higher education institutions in capacity building"

Ms. Terhi Evinen, Centre for International Mobility CIMO

12.50 Coffee break

13.00 Introduction to Africa cooperation of Seinäjoki University of Applied Sciences

- Umodzi NSS Project

Mr. Jussi Kareinen, Senior lecturer, School of Culture and Design, Seinäjoki University of Applied Sciences

- Health Africa NSS Project

Ms. Merja Seppälä, Senior lecturer, Centria University of Applied Sciences and Ms. Helli Kitinoja, Manager of International Affairs, Seinäjoki University of Applied Sciences

13.30 Keynote: "Musical arts as a tool for social change and development for life wellness"

Dr. Rose A. Omolo-Ongati, Chair of Music Department, The Department of Music & Theatre Studies, Maseno University, Kenya

13.45 Differences between African and Finnish studies

- As an exchange student from Uganda

Exchange students Ms. Harriet Nannyondo and Ms. Joan Mukazungu, International Health Sciences University

- As an African degree student in Finland

Degree Students of Nursing and International Business Programmes of Seinäjoki University of Applied Sciences

14.15 International choir of SeAMK

14.30 Closing words

Ms. Helli Kitinoja, Manager of International Affairs, Seinäjoki University of Applied Sciences

The seminar is free of charge and it is held in English. During the seminar there is a possibility to have a cup of African coffee or tea. The seminar is a part of the cultural event "Seinäkuun Yö". More information and registrations to the seminar by Sunday May 5th 2013 to Auri Lampinen, producer, auri.lampinen@seamk.fi